

SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENT

Day Before:

Tomorrow is Children's Grief Awareness Day. This is a day that is set aside nationally every year to raise awareness and extend support to people we know who are grieving the loss of someone important in their life. A great way to show your support is to wear blue tomorrow.

November 21, 2019:

Today is Children's Grief Awareness Day, which is a day that is set aside nationally every year to raise awareness and extend support to people we know who are grieving the loss of someone important in their life. You might see some people wearing blue today!

If you know someone who has lost someone important to them, reach out today and let them know that you care about them. All of us go through difficult experiences, and the best thing we can do is to show and communicate our support.
